DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

VALEDICTORY ORATION,

At the Late Commencement at Chapel Hill,

DELIVERED BY

FABIUS H. BUSBEE, of Raleigh, N. C.

Never did one undertake to deliver the farewell oration under more impressive circumstances, or with a deeper sense of his inability to do justice to the occasion. I stand the representative of the last regular Senior class; the last Valedictorian of seventy years. To-day the President of the University, who for more than thirty years has bent all his energies to the task of building up this Institution, and to whose labors under God it has been so greatly indebted for its past success—to day he lays down his office. To-day, the Faculty, his able coadjutors, cease to exist as a regular body. Aye, by a recent vote of the Board of Trustees, even the time-honored University itself to-day was to bid a last farewell to the system of instruction under which it has flourished for three-quarters of a century. Surely it is an occasion of more than ordinary interest.

Our class enters upon the active duties of life in a time especially demanding their purest integrity, their highest exertion. In the words of Burke, "The great highways are broken up, and the waters are out."—In every department of thought, whether educational, scientific, moral or political, the everlasting conflict between new opinions and long-established theories is raging with unparalleled fury. The advocates of educational reform justly rise in opposition to the exclusive attention paid to classical studies, and demand for the physical sciences a more important place in the systems of instruction. The startling theories of Darwin, of Spencer and of Bain are shaking to their very foundations the old hypotheses of science. Against the pure religion of the lowly Jesus the poisoned arrows of rationalists are flying thick and fast. In the political and social world the infusion of new ideas is marked and encouraging. A glorious revolution of opinion is now actively going on in Europe. Upon every hill-top the signal-fires of progress are brightly gleaming. The watch-word of Reform, rising from the clattering work shops of Birmingham, and resounding along the vine clad hills of France and the olive-groves of Italy, is re-echoed from the wintry shores of the Baltic and the banks of the dark-flowing Danube. In America the advocates of impetuous progress control the councils of the nation.

But while, on the one hand, it is of vital importance to the people of the South that, with their minds free from prejudice, they acquiesce in the stern logic of events and join heart and hand in the work of restoration; on the other, it is equally essential that they strive to restore and perpetuate the safeguards of freedom. The sacred landmarks of civil liberty, which have stood through so many generations, the priceless inheritance of the race in whose veins runs commingled Norman and Saxon blood, stand in imminent danger of being submerged in the swelling tide of legislative despotism. Despite the flattering encomium upon the progress of the United States, which we have just heard, I cannot close my eyes to the fact that here in my native State the great writ of habeas corpus is powerless at the will of a shoulder-strapped despot, and it is greatly to be feared that a people whose birthrights are thus endangered will witness with the apathy of despair, or perchance even welcome with the hope of amelioration, the centralization of the supreme power in one man.

"The Tyrant of the Chersones,
Was Freedom's best and bravest friend;
That Tyrant was Miltiades—
Oh that the present hour would lend
Another despot of the kind!
Such chains as his were sure to bind."

But brave men will not despair of the Republic. That the liberties of the whole country are now trembling in the balance must soon be apparent to the public mind. We of the South entertain no vain yearnings for the

"Days that are over, dreams that are done."

We honor the gallant soldiers who fought under the star-spangled banner, and weep in sympathy with all the heart stricken sufferers of our common country. But we ask, in all humanity, that sectional animosity be forever laid aside,—that the flag of our country, in its silken beauty, droop pityingly over Southern dead,—that the surviving brothers of an afflicted nation clasp hands over the countless graves where the brave men of both armies sleep.

"These in the robings of glory,
Those in the gloom of defeat;
All with the battle-blood gory,
In the dusk of eternity meet;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the laurel, the Blue,
Under the willow, the Gray."

I am reminded by the expectant glances of my fair auditory that I have neglected to characterize in fitting terms the progress of the nineteenth century toward woman suffrage. I crave their forgiveness. Yes, in the halcyon days to come, the ballot-box will be haunted by crinoline and chignon. Oh! who would not then be a politician, to enter with delight upon the canvass of a county, or be an undecided voter to be swayed by the convincing arguments of a lovely candidatess! Yet for frail masculine humanity—if not for the future existence of the race—it may be an interesting question as to who will perform the domestic duties in that approaching era. Hear the prophetic vision of the last, proud lord of creation, and tremble for the future:

"A fortiess looking man in a rocking-chair dozes,
A half-written letter the secret discloses—
"'Dear Joe, having finished my little boy's stocking,
I write a few lines while the cradle I'm rocking:
My wife in the Senate, my daughters at sea,
I find I'm as lonely as well I can be.'"

In a greater degree, perhaps, than any class which has preceded us, we have formed friends and acquaintances among the citizens of Chapel Hill. I assure them that we will ever cherish the most grateful and agreeable recollections of their kind hospitality—and to all, in the name of the class, I tender our heartfelt adieux.

Gentlemen of the Trustees: When I consider that your venerable body, comprising the most honored names of North Carolina, is soon to be overwhelmed by the resistless surge of innovation, I begin to realize, in all its bitter meaning, that a new order of things has arisen amongst us. We may well dread to speculate upon the future. For your attendance at this juncture, we offer our sincere thanks. Your past exertions in behalf of the educational interests of the State will not speedily be forgotten. Happy will it be for the University if it can still retain the benefit of your counsel and experience.

Respectfully, gratefully, our class bids you—Farewell!

To you, sir, our President, what tribute can I pay worthy of our affection or commensurate with your services? You have inculcated on our class the principles of constitutional liberty, and a devotion to North Carolina and the Federal Union, which will, I trust, bear noble fruit. Some men reap their reward upon earth; and I cannot but think that you, who having filled early in life the highest offices of the State, resigned bright prospects of further political preferment, and devoted your energies to the education of the growing mind of the country, retire now, after a long life of usefulness and honor, the most enviable man in North Carolina. The grateful attachment of your pupils is the richest of all earthly possessions. Sir, North Carolina will long remember you. Wherever your lot may be cast, thousands will rise up and call you blessed.

Our class bids you a reluctant farewell!

Gentlemen of the Faculty:—In parting from you, our faithful instructors,—may I not add, our valued friends,—I cannot refrain from expressing our high appreciation of the lofty spirit of self-abnegation which you have exhibited. While the pressure of events has forced others to depart, you have nobly remained at your posts, doing your whole duty to God and to man, regarding not your lessened salaries, and accepting uncomplainingly your diminished sphere of action. Within and without the recitation rooms, your influence upon the minds of the class has been of universal advantage. In the name of my classmates, I heartily thank you. Every true friend of the University prays that you may be induced, for its own future good, nay, for its very existence, to remain in your present positions.

Of the venerable man no longer seen among your number, and who breathed out his last sigh in the arms of our class upon the very spot where I now stand, I can scarce trust myself to speak. Ripe in years and in reputation, doubly endeared to all by his cheerful piety, his rare attainments and his noble heart, Dr. Phillips may truly be declared, in the language of Tacitus, "felix non vita solum claritate, sed etiam opportunitate mortis";—fortunate not only in the lustre of his life, but also in the seasonableness of his death.

"Like a shadow thrown
Softly and sweetly from a passing cloud
Death fell upon him."

His sun indeed "hath made a golden set." May the memory of his virtues stimulate us to follow his pure example!

Our class bids you, gentlemen, an affectionate Farewell!

Fellow Students: It is sad to think that in a few brief moments I can address you as such no more. In such an hour all the petty rivalries inseparably incident to human intercourse are forever

"In the deep bosom of the ocean buried."

Though I can hardly hope to influence you by parting advice, yet the interest of the occasion may cause some suggestions to be remembered. Then, my friends, in the struggle between liberal and conservative principles, a part in which you are soon to take, do not permit the present crisis and political designations to have an undue influence upon the choice of your opinion. You, whose opinions are now in process of formation, should encourage no morbid attachment to obsolete institutions. Tie yourselves down to no creed of political faith; to no dead issues. North Carolina feels the want of men trained to think out for themselves solutions to the great problems of the day. I trust that you need no stimulus to persistent diligence in the acquisition of knowledge. I will not paint the high rewards which await the educated men of the South, for, in the simple language of John Stuart Mill, "the less we think about being directly rewarded, the better for us. But there is one reward which will not fail you, because it is inherent in the very fact of deserving it: the deeper and more varied interest you will feel in life, which will give it tenfold its value, and a value which will last to the end."

Into your hands, Fellow-Students, are committed the future reputation of the University and the welfare of the Societies. Faithfully discharge these sacred trusts, and you will have done well. Finally, brethren, to speak with the inspired Apostle, "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report,—if there be any virtue, if there be any praise, think on these things."

In the name of my class, I bid you Farewell!

My Classmates: When I turn to you, I find how utterly inadequate are words prepared beforehand to interpret the language of the soul. I feel that to you the fitting valedictory is the cordial clinging grasp of the hand, the swelling tear, the throb of the overladen heart. I envy not the man who can realize that we are now together for the last time.

"For cold is he whose memory finds
No kindness when we part;
Where mind has mixed so long with mind,
And heart has linked with heart."

Our student life is over. The goal for which we have been impatiently striving, is at length reached, and yet we cast a longing, lingering look behind. There is a tender fascination in every building—every tree, every shrub. We would fain linger yet awhile among scenes so dear.

But we, who are henceforth to be working members of the republic, must not shrink from action. Especially while the blessings of constitutional liberty are denied to our people, the South demands from its educated sons persistent heroic labor. Think not of self in the contest.

"In such a cause 'tis glorious e'en to fall."

Dear friends, fellow soldiers! Ye who have so nobly borne aloft the star-lit standard of a lost cause, when you go forth into "the clamor and rumor of life to be," guard, I beseech you, with jealous care, the reputation of your lost comrades in arms. Defend against every attack the purity of their intentions, the glory of their achievements. Of them, as of the patriots of Ghent, we may truly say,

"They died like heroes, for no recreant step
Had e'er dishonored them—no stain of fear,
No base despair, no cowardly recoil."

To earnest labor in behalf of the South the approval of your consciences is not the only stimulant. See before you the priceless jewels entrusted to our protection—the Women of the South. These are no unfamiliar fires. We have seen them in our darkest hours of peril, the "angels of the Hospital," who ministered with loving tenderness at the bedside of the sick and wounded, who wiped the death-dew from the brow of the dying, and closed with tears the eyelids of the dead. Their safety and honor are committed in part to our hands. God grant, gentlemen, that we may prove equal to the charge.

I earnestly pray that we, the last regular Senior Class, may prove worthy successors of the distinguished men whose names are enrolled as Alumni of our venerable University.

Leaving our Alma Mater in her hour of gloom, her very distress should endear her more closely to every generous heart. If her sons prove loyal to their mother, and be ever ready by word and deed to defend her fair fame and advance her interests, the cloud which now overhangs the University will pass away, and in due time it will arise as of old, a beacon-light of liberal education, diffusing far and wide the blessings of science and culture.

In the storm of life, my classmates, may God be with you!

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1868

MR. SUMNER, THE NEGRO, &c.

To the credit of Mr. Senator Sumner, of Massachusetts, it may be said, that however objectionable and fanatical his views may be as to the equality of the different varieties of the human species and negro suffrage, he has, so far as the public know, maintained his consistency. He does not blink the question, but admits the right of the negro to a seat in Congress, and declares that it would afford him pleasure to meet them as equals in the National Legislature, and, furthermore, he very properly declares that the principles of the Radical party can never be accomplished, until negro Senators and Representatives are admitted into that body.

This view of Radicalism, and of its sincerity and responsibility to the negro, we have strictly maintained. In no way can the Radical party give confidence to the negro and give proof of its sincerity, but by encouraging colored men, every where, to aspire to office, and aiding them in obtaining it, where the blacks have a majority of the votes. Hence, we have all along held that, in the Counties of New Hanover, Craven, and others, where the colored Radical vote numbers from ten to twenty to one of the white Radicals, party fidelity and simple honesty demanded that, in every instance, colored Radicals should have been preferred to white Radicals. It was a shameful piece of partyism, insincerity and political dishonesty, when James H. Harris, of Wake, though a negro, after he had fairly received the nomination for Congress in this District, should have been ruled off, or bought off, to give place to Dewees.

Moreover, in addition to the obligations of the Radical party to give what is just and equal to the negro Radicals, in matters of office as in everything else, there is this consideration why negro Radicals should be preferred to those Northern white Radicals, whom the disasters of the war have induced to come South to make their fortunes: The negroes may be regarded as permanent citizens among us. For weal or woe, they are not only citizens of the United States, under the Reconstruction acts, but of North Carolina, or of the States in which they reside, while the carpet baggers cannot be regarded as permanent citizens.

We wish it distinctly understood, that when we use the term carpet-baggers, we do not mean it to apply to Northern men, who have come among us since the war, to settle permanently, to share alike with our native citizens in the toil and struggle of improving the condition of the people and of effecting the recuperation of the State, and who give evidence of it, by engaging in such enterprises and vocations as are likely to improve their own condition and benefit the people, and who show a readiness to bear the burdens of the State, while they reap its benefits, in common with our people.—But we do mean it for those who exhibit an inordinate desire for paying offices and positions, which they have no claim to, and for which they are not better qualified than others, before they have scarcely secured a domicil in the State; who have paid no taxes, and who have not contributed in any way to the permanent prosperity of the State.

We affirm that, personally, we have no special ill-will against any of these Northern men, who have come among us, and who have inordinately sought office for its benefits, but, as a matter of principle and duty to North Carolina, and because we believe it unjust and derogatory to our native citizens, we ask, in the name of the people of the State, what claims have this class of men to the profitable offices, to which they have been elected or to which they aspire? Are there not native white or negro Radicals who could fill those offices as well? Our objection does not lie against them because they are Northern-born, or because they affiliate with the party now in power in the State. But because, before they have scarcely secured a domicil in the State, before they have given any evidence of permanent habitation in the State, and before they have paid one cent of taxes to support the State government, or for the Counties in which they reside, or for the poor, they have labored night and day to possess themselves of the paying offices, to the exclusion of the negro, who, according to their own doctrine, is their equal. Were they as consistent as Mr. Sumner, J. H. Harris, J. W. Hood, A. H. Galloway, John Randolph, and others, would fill the offices to which these carpet-baggers aspire.

THE PAY OF THE SOUTHERN CONGRESSMEN.—The decision of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, in the matter of the pay of Southern Congressmen, if not over-ruled in the Judiciary Committee, will leave some of them "high and dry." It is understood that many of them had to pay extravagantly for their positions, in buying off negro rivalry, compensating negro canvassers in their interests, &c. As their terms of office expire with the present Congress, on the 4th of March next, their pay as members will hardly re-imburse their outlays. The majority of them will have the honors stripped from their modest and blushing brows, when another election takes place.

A correspondent of the Charlotte Times, writing from this City, mentions the rumor that Mr. District Attorney Starbuck will don the Judicial robes (Good Heavings!) tendered him in the recent election, and will be succeeded in his present office by one J. M. Cloud, of Surry.

THEN AND NOW.

In the Inaugural Message of George Washington to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, on the 30th. day of April, 1789, referring to the constitutional injunction imposed upon the President "to recommend such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient," that great patriot said:

"It will be more consistent with those circumstances, and far more congenial with the feelings which actuate me, to substitute, in place of a recommendation of particular measures, the tribute that is due to the talents, the rectitude and the patriotism which adorn the characters selected to devise and adopt them. In these honorable qualifications, I behold the surest pledges, that as, on one side, no local prejudices or attachments, no separate views, nor party animosities, will misdirect the comprehensive and equal eye which ought to watch over this great assemblage of communities and interests; so, on another, that the foundations of our national policy will be laid in the pure and immutable principles of private morality; and the pre-eminence of free government be exemplified by all the attributes which can win the affections of its citizens, and command the respect of the world."

The tribute to the characters of the eminent men whom he was addressing was well and fitly bestowed. They were men who had done the country gallant service on the battle fields of the Revolution, or who had distinguished themselves in the councils of the old Confederation, and who were equally as illustrious for their personal probity and integrity. They did lay the foundations of the Republic in the "pure and immutable principles of private morality," as well as of public justice, community and fraternity,—foundations which would never have been shaken, had they not been insidiously undermined by a set of infidels and fanatics, who declared that the "Constitution was a league with hell and a covenant with the devil," and that its great authors were enemies to mankind and traitors to humanity. Those foundations can never be restored to their original equipoise and stability, until the virtues eulogized by Washington shall resume their places in the national councils and control once more its deliberations.

Imagine a President, now, congratulating the Congress of the present day upon the "rectitude and patriotism which adorn the characters" of its members, or felicitating the country that the "pre eminence of free government will be exemplified (in them) by all the attributes which can win the affections of its citizens and command the respect of the world!" The country, unfortunately, would blush, and the world would laugh, at the suggestion.

It is fashionable with the crazy Radical zealots of the present time, when pointed to their mad departure from the ancient and safe moorings of the Constitution and of Republican liberty, to answer that "this is an age of Progress and of liberal principles." But there is such a thing as "progressing" so far as to shoot beyond all the safeguards of government and all the restraints of public and private morality; and there are principles so "liberal" as to ignore all the distinctions between right and wrong, justice and malignity, virtue and vice.

No lover of his country can witness the scenes, now daily enacting in the Capitol, of official venality and personal baseness and profligacy,—of party legislation controlled only by mercenary interests or sectional malignity,—in one word, of an utter disregard of high moral and patriotic obligations,—without cursing the "Progress" and "liberal principles" which have made a wreck of free government, blasted the hopes of the Fathers of the Republic, and made the name of the American Congress, as at present constituted, a stench and a by-word!

THE LEGISLATURE.

The following, we presume, is the telegram from Gen. Canby to W. W. Holden, Governor elect, to which we alluded on yesterday. We do not put the same construction on the letter, which we did on yesterday, upon the statement which we received, from a good source, as to the character of the telegram. We infer, from the letter, that while Gen. Canby will not require the test-oath from members of the Legislature, that he will, nevertheless, object to those taking their seats, who are disqualified by the (Howard) Constitutional amendment, although it is not yet a part of the Constitution! The Standard seems simply to regard it as suspending the test oath, in order to the organization of the new State Government. The following is the letter in the Standard, which has been handed us:

HEADQ'RS SECOND MILITARY DIST. }
Charleston, S. C., June 23rd, 1868. }

Hon. W. W. HOLDEN, Governor elect of North Carolina, Raleigh, N. C.:

SIR—The second section of the act to "admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina," &c., and authorizing the Legislatures to meet before the complete restoration of the States, is regarded as dispensing with the oath of office prescribed by the act of July 2nd, 1862, in the case of the members elect who are not disqualified by the Constitutional amendment, and as allowing them to qualify upon taking the oath of office prescribed by the new State Constitution.

As soon as the bill becomes a law, an order will be issued modifying the provisions of General Orders No. 83, of May 12th, 1868, in conformity with this construction.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
ED. R. S. CANBY,
Bv't Major General Commanding.

"A pitiful sight indeed will be seen in the "City of Oaks" between the 1st and 10th of July. Not a bone will be left unpicked, nor shred of flesh remain, and none henceforth will recognize, in the skeleton, the glorious old State of other days—the prolific mother of great and true men."—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

The "pitiful sight" is already visible.—The vultures are gathering—and they are gaunt and hungry-looking. The most "pitiful" feature of the matter is that the greedy carpet-baggers are not only the most numerous and the most clamorous, but that they have the inside track completely. They are dictating the terms to the native element, and carry things, it is said, with a high hand. We shall have a "chiel amang them takin' notes," when the operations of the ring begin to assume a more developed status.

WORKINGS OF THE "RING."—We do not seek to know the secrets of the Radical leaders here, nor the particular schemes of the carpet-baggers. We give the following speculations of the Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Star, doubting the correctness of some of them. We hardly think that Joseph William aspires to the Speakership of the House, (though he would do better, perhaps, than Daddy Cowles,) or that his father would favor the movement.

There are likely to be numerous candidates for the Senatorships. There are to be three Senatorial elections; one for the short term, which will expire 4th. of March next; one for the term of four years, and one for the term of six. We have heard, for some days, that Capt. Settle would relinquish his hold upon the Supreme Court Judgeship, in favor of Mr. Pool, and become one of the Senators. It is doubtful, however, whether this would suit either Capt. Settle or Mr. Pool. Dr. Sloan may be run for the short term.—Either Gen. Abbott, Mr. Pool, Col. Heaton, Gen. Dockery, Jones, of the Mountain District, James Postleroy Taylor, Col. Sinclair, &c., all of whom are understood to be candidates for the U. S. Senate, might consent to take the four years' term, but we should not be surprised if the rumor be correct that Gov. Holden will go in for the six years' term.

The correspondent of the Star says:

"The Captain General of the scallawags, W. W. Holden, and Abbott, the chief of the carpet-baggers, have entered into a league, offensive and defensive, for the purpose of perpetuating Radical rule in North Carolina and sharing all the offices, State and Federal.

As usual, however, Holden comes off first in the bargain agreed on between the chieftains. Abbott alone, although at the head of the carpet baggers, is not able, with Heaton on his flank, to aspire successfully to Senatorial honors; consequently, he is obliged to have the aid of Holden. Holden agrees to give the required aid, but on two conditions, viz: that he, Holden, will as far as possible be permitted to control the legislative functions of the State government, as well as the Executive, and to this end Abbott and his ring agree to support Joseph William Holden, the son and heir of the notorious Governor, for the Speakership of the House of Commons. This young ex-"rebel" officer, a boy in years, takes the Speaker's chair in order that the appointment of the committees and all the other legislative machinery in the lower House may be at the absolute disposal of his father. John Pool is to be soothed with the promise of prospective honors. Heaton, Sweet & Co., are to be supplied with certain sinecures from Washington, if they consent to fall gracefully away from the Senatorial contest. Dockery's claims are fully met by the representation of the 3rd. Congressional District.

Thus, then, the matter stands so far as the United States Senator for the Eastern portion of the State is concerned. Now for the West. Holden cannot tolerate any one who is not a supple instrument in his hands, and his choice at this time is Dr. Sloan, of Gaston. This man is comparatively a stranger to the people of the State, but, having held office under the Provisional government, Holden knows that he is thoroughly competent to do his dirty jobs.

The West is averse to Sloan, and Jones, the member elect from the mountain district, is used to secure the election of Sloan. Jones is going to push his claims to a seat in the Senate of the United States before the Legislature; but, as in the case of the negro Harris's against Dewese, the carpet-bagger, for Congress, he will give way at the proper time for the election of Sloan.

The Governor's candidates are bound to be elected, and these are, as you can plainly see, Abbott and Sloan, who will, of course, support the boy Joe for Speaker of the House as a part of the programme."

IN THIS ERA of odd political history, when it is difficult to learn who are the ins and outs of office, and when the new politicians seem hardly to know whether they are really butterflies, chrysalides, or only caterpillars yet, and as we wish to be duly loyal, if we only knew whom to be loyal to, we are reminded of the old epigram, depicting the bewildering perplexities of a former age:

'God bless the King! I mean our faith's defender;
God bless—no harm in blessing—the Pretender!
But who Pretender is, or who is King—
God bless us all! that's quite another thing."

GENERAL FORREST ON POLITICS.—The ex-Confederate General Forrest is going to the New York Fourth of July Convention as a delegate. In the course of a recent conversation he is reported to have said that it will not be any more curious to see him in the Democratic Convention than it was to see Joe Brown, of Georgia, in the Radical Convention, and he adds:

"The Radicals like Joe Brown because he is a Radical. I suppose the same rule would apply to me with the Democrats.—Why, sir, the warmest reception I've had since the war was from General Sherman. I'm not afraid of the Democratic soldiers or the Republican soldiers. I like General Hancock, and I don't believe there is a brave or reasonable Union soldier who dislikes or doubts me as a man. I went into the war because my vote had been unable to preserve the peace. I took a through ticket, of course, and I fought and lost as much as any one else; certainly as much as I could. Now the war's over, and I'm under oath to keep my parole. Suppose I consider myself an outlaw, and refuse to take part in what's going on; does that help me to keep my oath? Won't folks that are disposed to be ill-natured say I'm sullen and dangerous, and only waiting a chance to break out in a fresh place? That's what they have said. Now I give the country a sort of hostage in addition to my parole when I join an active, organized body of Union men in the North, and I proclaim when I go to New York that I am at least as well reconstructed as Joe Brown, who was an original secessionist."

An impression prevails in Washington that the President will, on or about the 4th of July next, issue a proclamation of general amnesty, embracing all classes excepted in former proclamations. Such a measure has been recommended by prominent Conservatives there.

General Logan, in a recent speech at Cincinnati, declared that "the President ought to be impeached and hurled over the White House as the devil was hurled over the battlements of Heaven." John was probably drunk.

The Hon. Daniel D. Pratt, of Logansport, Indiana, who has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Eighth District of that State, is one of the largest men in America. His height is six feet six inches, and his weight about four hundred pounds.

On the 24th. of May the body of Senator McDougall was buried, a great concourse attending, in the Lone Mountain Cemetery, at San Francisco, within a few yards of the place of sepulture of his predecessors in the Senate, Baker and Broderick.

CATCH THE HOUSE-BURNERS!!
They are Desperate! Neither Life nor Property are Safe when They are About!

OUR STORE WAS BURNED, LAST SUNDAY night, causing a loss to us of $7,500.

Evidence in hand shows that ELLICK KEEN and PETER SANDFORD, (colored) and HENRIETTA HEARN, (white woman) are the incendiaries. They left their home on last Monday, and all efforts to find them, so far, have been in vain.

ELLICK (a Blacksmith) is a jet black, stooped in the shoulders, downward look, quick spoken, with rather a womanish voice,—about 25 years old and 5 feet 10 inches high.

PETER is a little taller, not jet black; squint-eyed and a large space between upper front teeth,—about 33 years old.

Each one will weigh about 160.

HENRIETTA HEARN is about 30 years old, features ordinary, has, or did have a child, a girl, about 6 years old, with her.

The parties have been intimate for some time and have left together,—it is not known in what direction.

This loss has impoverished us greatly, but a liberal reward will be paid for their arrest, or for any information that will lead to it.

Wake Forest College, N. C.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on the first day of August, 1868, with the prospect of increased patronage and success. The complete assurance given at the recent Commencement, of the adaptedness of the University system to the wants of the times, and of its feasibility, encourages its friends to believe that the College has entered upon a career of popularity and usefulness hitherto unknown in its history. The financial embarrassments to which all Southern Colleges have been subjected are not felt to the same extent at Wake Forest, as at some others, in consequence of the considerable amount of original endowment saved, and of the favorable reception with which the Agent of the College meets in securing additional funds. An expenditure of more than $3,000 has been recently made in improving the condition of the building and grounds.

Determined to bring its advantages within reach of the largest number possible, the Trustees, seconded by the community, have reduced the price of Board and Tuition to the lowest practicable rates.

The officers of instruction are gentlemen of tried ability in their several departments, and the success attending their efforts in the past is the best guarantee the public can have for the future.

The location of the College in point of healthfulness and accessibility, (being situated on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad a few miles from the Capital of the State,) is not surpassed by that of any other in the land; while the moral and social influences connected with and surrounding it, and the peculiar discipline enforced, present inducements to patronage of no ordinary kind.

A system of PUBLIC LECTURES on literary and scientific subjects has been introduced, with a view to increase the interest of the young men in the several departments of study, and to furnish additional incentives to investigation and research.

Extensive and well selected LIBRARIES belonging to the Societies, and complete APPARATUS, PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL, are not to be omitted in the enumeration of the advantages possessed.

Another encouraging feature is that there are, at present, thirteen young men engaged in studies preparatory to the work of the Ministry; and it may not be amiss to state that any Minister, who may apply for admission, will receive tuition in all the departments free of charge, and those of this class, who are without means, are encouraged to apply to the Board of Education for further assistance.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Attention is invited to the announcement of A. A. McKoy, Esq., Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Clinton Male Academy.

The fifty-fifth session of the Warrenton Female Institute will commence July 16th., with a full corps of efficient and experienced Instructors.

Miss Florence Martindale will open school at her mother's residence, in this city, on the 1st. prox.

Printing Material for sale,—enough to commence the immediate publication of a newspaper: Apply, for information, at this office.

J. W. Watson, at his Photograph Gallery, offers unusual inducements. He has a large lot of elegant frames, &c., and is au fait in all the departments of his art.

Two good rooms, suitable for offices, over the Store of Williams & Lambeth, are for rent: Apply to Alfred Williams, Esq.

Cash Dividend of three per cent. declared by the Board of Directors of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad: Payable on and after July 16th.

Messrs. W. B. Aston & Co., No. 25, Pearl Street, N. Y., advertise Grain and Flour Sacks. They can furnish Grain Sacks of all sizes and qualities. Cotton and Paper Flour Sacks printed to order, &c.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION.—The teachers and scholars of the Baptist Sunday School went up the N. C. Railroad, on yesterday morning, as far as Hillsboro, on their annual excursion, and returned late in the afternoon, after a delightful trip. The weather was unpropitious, but this circumstance interfered but little with the enjoyments of the happy party.—This school is a very large and flourishing one, and is conducted with great energy and efficiency.

VALEDICTORY ORATION.—We copy from the N. C. Presbyterian, and publish on our first page, to-day, the Valedictory Oration of Mr. Fabius H. Busbee, at the late Commencement of our University. It is a feeling, very appropriate, manly production, and reflects great credit upon both the head and heart of our promising young townsman.

ROSADALIS.—Dr. J. J. Lawrence, a resident Physician of Wilson, in this State, some three years ago commenced the preparation of the popular medicine, now so extensively known as Rosadalis. The demand for it became so great that he removed to Baltimore, where he continues to prepare it on a large scale. We have known no medicine to become so popular in so short a time. The demand for it, we learn, is very great. Success to Dr. Lawrence and to every North Carolina enterprise! See advertisement in to-day's issue.

DIVIDEND.—It will be perceived, by the announcement in another column, that the Board of Directors of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad have declared a Dividend of three per cent., payable at the office of the Company, in this city, on and after the 16th. prox. The fact that this Road has been able to declare a Dividend, considering its difficulties during the last fiscal year, is most creditable to its management. There are few, if any, Roads in the whole country, whose affairs are conducted with more energy, judgment and ability. We repeat that this Dividend is a "good thing."

SUPREME COURT.—Opinions have been delivered as follows:

By PEARSON, C. J.—In McKay, ex'r. vs. Ray, adm., from Cumberland, judgment affirmed. In State vs. Murray, from Stanly, error, venire de novo. In Hedrick vs. Gobble, from Davidson, venire de novo. In Holmes vs. Sackett & Co., from Rowan, judgment reversed.

By BATTLE, J. In First National Bank of Wilmington vs. Wilmington & Manchester Railroad Company, in Equity, from New Hanover, demurrer overruled. In March Hampton et al. vs. John W. Thomas, in Equity, from Davidson, error. In Harshaw vs. McCombs, in Equity, from Cherokee, demurrer sustained and bill dismissed. In State vs. Candle, from Yadkin, no error.

By READE, J.—In Stout vs. Woody, from Chatham, affirmed. In State vs. Church, from Wilkes, error. In State vs. Harris, from Rowan, error, venire de novo. In Rhyne vs. Wacaser, from Lincoln, no error, judgment affirmed.

William M. Davies, of Buncombe, has been licensed to practice in the Superior Courts of the State.

Advices received at Washington from Senator Grimes, of Iowa, say that his recovery is now impossible. His memory is rapidly failing, and his mind is becoming so weak that he complains of not being able to think.

PROTEST OF THE DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS AGAINST THE ADMISSION OF THE ARKANSAS REPRESENTATIVES.

The following is the protest which Mr. Brooks offered in the House against the admission of the Representatives of the State of Arkansas:

"The recognized presence of three persons on the floor of this House from the State of Arkansas, sent here by military force, acting under a Brigadier General of the army, but nevertheless claiming to be members of this Congress, and to share with us, the Representatives from the free States, in the imposition of taxes and customs and other laws upon our people, makes it our imperative duty, in this the first case, to remonstrate most solemnly and to protest as solemnly against this perilous and destructive innovation upon the principles and practices of our hitherto constitutional self-government. The so called reconstruction acts, which created the military government in Arkansas, and like governments in other Southern States, to share with us in the legislative power of the Northern and Western free people, we have every reason to believe, have been held to be unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States, the public declaration of which fact was avoided only by the extraordinary and strange device of this Congress in snatching jurisdiction from the court in the McArdle case, when such a public decision was about to be made. Of the three great branches of the Government, it seems, then, that after the Executive vetoed these acts as unconstitutional, the judiciary adjudicated them to be so, while a Congress, the creation of but twenty-seven of the thirty-seven States of the Union, overrides these equal and co-ordinate branches of that Government, first by voting down the vetoes, next by nullifying the judgment of the court. In an era of profound peace, when not an armed man rises against the Government from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, then, in ten States, our American historical way of creating the organic law has been utterly subverted by the bayonet. Eversince the Declaration of Independence—with scarcely an exception—and even amid the battles of the Revolution, Conventions have been convoked through, and Constitutions created by, the electors of the States, the only authorized depositories of the sovereign power of every State, without exterior dictation, as under the existing Federal Constitution. The hardest and harshest test oath required from 1776 to the peace of 1783, was an abjuration oath of allegiance to George the Third, while some of the so-called bayonet-made Constitutions from the South propose absurd and cruel tests—absurd, as in Arkansas, where is interwoven in the organic law a mere party test between the Radical Reconstructionists and the Democratic Conservatives, such as would exclude from voting, if living there, the thousands and tens of thousands and hundreds of thousands of Democrats in the free States, (art. 8, sec. 4;) or cruel, as in Alabama, when no white man can vote who will not forever forswear his own race and color and perjure himself by swearing, in defiance of the law of God, that the negro is his equal and forever to be his equal at the ballot box, in the jury-box, with the cartouch-box, in the school, in the college, in house and home, and by the fireside—in short, in every way, everywhere—(article 7, section 4.) Now, in these and the other Southern States, in the midst of war, President Lincoln, in his proclamation of December 8, 1863, offered amnesty and pardon to rebels then in arms, if they would lay down their arms and take an oath of fidelity, while now not a Union man in Arkansas or Alabama can vote, unless h the first place he swears allegiance to the majesty of this Congress, and, in the next, swears off his Americanism and Africanizes himself.

Hitherto, Constitutions with us have been the outgrowth of popular life, springing from the exuberance of our enterprise and energy in the settlement of the forests or prairies of our country; but here before us now are nine Constitutions, with one, if not three, more to come from Texas, which have all been imposed upon the people by five military satraps or Pentarchs, in a manner never before known under our law, but borrowed at best from imperial Roman civilization, or from the worst precedents of the French revolution. France is there recorded to have had five Constitutions in three years; so frequently made and so frequently changed that they were ironically classed by the French people with the periodical literature of the day. Louisiana, a colony of that France, has had four Constitutions in four years, and a Constitution there has now become periodical literature, as in France in the agonies and throes of the great revolution. Law even, statute laws, which can never be created by Constitutions, are appended, more or less, to all these Constitutions; and these bayonet-created, one-branch governments, with no Executive, no Senate, no House of Representatives, no Judiciary, have ordained irrepealable, irreversible laws in the very organism of the State—such as cannot thus be created by the Executive, the Senate, and the House of Representatives of legitimate government, when acting in unison and all combined.—All this has been done without regard to preceding Constitution or precedents, or to the common law of the States, or the law of nations. The military, which under legitimate institutions can only be used in times of peace to conserve or preserve the State, have here been used to destroy States. The General of the army, who represents the sword, and only the sword of the Republic, has been exalted by acts of Congress above the Constitutional Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy, in order to execute those military decrees, and, as he surer way to throw out every vestige left of constitutional law or liberty, the same General of the army, in order to prolong or perpetuate his military domination, North and West, as well as South, has been elected in party Convention at Chicago to had the electoral vote for the Presidency in all of our States, which are as much under his foot as Turkey is under the Sultan,' or Poland under the Czar of Russia. But, as only to add insult to the injury of this military outrage upon the popular government in these ten States, either by act of Congress or by these Congress soldier made State Constitutions, at least 250,000 whites have been disfranchised, while 750,000 negroes, inexperienced in all law making, and more ignorant than our children, have been enfranchised in their stead, and have thus been created absolute masters and sovereigns over the whole white population of the South.

Because of all this, and in opposition to all this, we, Representatives of the people from the free States, in behalf of our constituents, and of thousands and tens of thousands of others who would be here represented if the popular power without could now constitutionally act here while, earnestly and solemnly protest against this violence upon the Constitution and upon our people, and do hereby counsel all and advise all friends of popular government to submit to this force and fraud only until at the ballot-box, operating through the elections, this great wrong can be put right. There is no law in the land over the constitutional law; there is no government but constitutional government; and hence all bayonet-made, all Congress-imposed Constitutions are of no weight, authority, or action, save that enforced by arms—an element of power unknown to Americans in peace, and never required but as it acts in and under the supreme civil law, the Constitution, and the statutes enacted in pursuance thereof.

We protest then, in behalf of the free people of the North and the West, against the right of this military oligarchy, established in Arkansas or elsewhere in the now re-enslaved States of the South, to impose upon us, through Congress, taxes, customs, or other laws, to maintain this oligarchy or its Freedmen's Bureau.

We protest against going into the now proposed copartnership of military dictators and negroes, in the administration of this Government. We demand, in the name of the fathers of the Constitution and for the sake of prosperity, not its reconstruction, but the restoration of that sacred instrument which has been to us all a pillar of fire from 1787 on to its present overthrow; and in all solemnity before God and man, under a full sense of the responsibility of all we utter, we do hereby affix our names to this protest against the admission of those three persons claiming to be members of Congress from Arkansas.

STATE NEWS.

An outbreak occurred among the prisoners at the New Hanover Work-house, on Wednesday. They assaulted one of the guards, who succeeded in drawing his pistol, and firing three shots, whereby he killed one man and wounded another. Only one prisoner is known to have escaped.

H. J. Menninger, the villifier of Bishop Atkinson, is out in a card, justifying his course. He fails utterly to meet the crushing points of Maj. Hughes' communication.

The still property of Messrs. Peacock & McCullum, Robeson County, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 23rd. The loss is about $2,000. It was, as usual, the work of an incendiary.

A negro infant was born in Wilmington, a few days ago, which has been named, by its "loil" mother, Holden-Galloway. That child will not survive.

A man by the name of Thos. Roberts has been arrested in Norfolk, charged with having robbed, in 1865, the store of A. S. Folket, in Currituck County. He awaits the requisition of the Governor of North Carolina.

Messrs. Cromly & Morris, Auctioneers, sold Railroad stocks in Wilmington, on Wednesday, as follows: Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford (par value $50) at $11@$11¼; Wilmington & Weldon $39,50; N. C. Railroad $18.

The "faithful" are "falling out" among themselves. A fight took place, on Saturday last, in Greensboro', between Mr. Fuller, of the Collector's office, and Dr. Johnson, (of Red String notoriety,) of the Assessor's office. The "Dr." was mauled.

The Editors of the Greensboro Times and Charlotte Times give interesting accounts of their recent visit to Raleigh. They both speak in high terms of Blair's Hotel and Tucker Hall.

Another fire in Salisbury on Wednesday night. The barn of Mrs. Murphy, an isolated building, was consumed. It was, doubtless, the work of an incendiary, and the fourth case within a few weeks.

THE TREE PROBLEM.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—As Problems seem to be the order of the day, I wish to give you one. It is this:

A young man, having courted a young lady, obtained her consent and applied to her father for his. The father replied that he could have her, on certain conditions.—He asked what they were. His reply was this: "I wish to plant a grove. I have only nineteen trees, which I want placed in nine straight rows, with five trees in each row. Solve this Problem and you can have my daughter." Q.

AN ALIBI.—On Monday next, it is said Gen. Grant goes, bag and baggage, to the Rocky Mountains, to stay two months, perhaps longer. He will be out of the way of speeches, letters, and troubles of all sorts.—His personal habits will no longer be supervised or criticized by Wendell Phillips, or strong-minded women of the Republican party. The arrangement is doubtless judicious, perhaps necessary, under all the circumstances; but, granting the need of a political alibi, what becomes of the law of Congress requiring that the General of the army shall have his headquarters and reside at Washington? Is this "obstructing" an act of Congress, and would it not justify impeachment if directed by the President? Some suspect that the President does not concern himself whether Grant comes or goes.

This adroit tactics puts us in mind of an old system of "cooping" voters, which once obtained in Maryland with certain hard cases. These it was very important to keep apart from the public eye and all extraneous appliance, and so they were shut up like so many chickens until the day of election; and then, by a noteworthy coincidence, unless the coop had been tampered with, they all voted the right ticket. "Ah, Samivel, my son! vy vern't there an alibi?"—Nat. Int.

REASONABLE.—A large number of soldiers and sailors, who are Democrats, and whose names were stricken from the registry in Washington City at the late election, have petitioned Congress on the subject.—They say: "We, as defenders of the flag of our country during the late war, and as freemen, descendants of an illustrious white ancestry, appeal most earnestly to the nation's representatives for privileges as great as are conferred upon the African race."

The Evening Express of Washington city, heretofore independent in politics, announces in its issue of Monday that it will support the nominees of the Democratic Convention, to be held in New York next month. The Express is an influential paper, and has a large circulation.

SPEECH OF HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR.

NEW YORK, June 26, M.

Gov. Seymour addressed an immense crowd, last night.

He said that, without general amnesty and the restoration of suffrage to all whites, at the South, a great standing army must be a permanent institution.

He said nothing in behalf of, or against, any candidate. No man had been named by the Democratic party, whose election would not help the tax-payer, pensioner, laborer and bond-holder.

He appealed to all classes, North, East, South and West, to unite in the effort to restore Peace and Prosperity, and drive from power the enemies of Liberty, Honesty, Honor, Right and Constitutional Law.

TO LAND OWNERS.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED, BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINERAL LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 2,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will subdivide their lands the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres, so acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.

The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other States and is said to be working finely.

This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1866. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Reidville, N. C.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES $2,700.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.

DIVIDENDS 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and SWORN statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the Ætna, in 1865, saved $10.41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, $4.90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $1,655,309; in 1866, $2,522,376, and in 1867, $5,120,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $677,919.-39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,287.64, making a grand total of $797,207 03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elisur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. Thus the Ætna is that Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

DAILY SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1868.

AT TWILIGHT.

We sit by the window, my baby and I
To the fading sunset light,
Watching the darkness creep over the sky,
Out of the Eastern night.
We see the stars come trembling out
In the track of the fallen sun,
And we feel the quiet within and without,
That comes when the day is done.

What have we been doing all day all day,
Since the rosy morning smiled?
Playing at work and working at play—
God help us, mother and child;
But much I fear those little hands
Have put me to shame to-day—
For God who is earnest understands
Truly our work and play.

I think of kindness left undone,
That might have brightened the day—
Of duties dreamed of, but never begun,
Scattered along my way;
You lie with peace in your violet eyes—
You have not earned regret—
For the sorrowful years that make us wise
Have not come to my baby yet.

And still, as I sit in this twilight hour,
At the close of a weary day,
Even sorrow and sin do not quite have power,
To keep a blessing away—
A blessing that falls like the dew from Heaven
On the parched and thirsty ground;
And in loving much, because much forgiven,
My deeper peace is found.

Your life, my baby, is just begun,
And mine is growing old;
But we're children both in the eyes of One
Whose years are all untold;
He holds us both in his loving hand,
He pardons all our sin,
And, by-and-by, to the same sweet land,
He will gently let us in.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st, DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
"	six months,	2 00
"	three months,	1 00
Weekly	for one year,	2 00
"	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
